Women's Tailored Cloth Suits, $29.75

At About Wholesale Prices

A very fortunate purchase of these Suits enables us to pass on the good fortune to our public. If anything they are marked less than wholesale rather than a bit above.

There are not more than 50 Suits in this lot, but there are several styles and a wide variety of materials and colors.

Perfect tailoring marks them as extra desirable—hand-bound button-holes, hand-sewn linings, etc. The linings are of heavy quality peau de cygne in self colors—and the jackets are warmly interlined. Wool velour, striped silvertone chevrot, tinseltone and tweeds are included.

Sizes—34 to 42.

$29.75

Women's Velveteen Dresses

$18.95

Three Beautiful Models

A woman always feels well dressed in Velveteen, and to find smartly fashioned Frocks of a superior quality of velveteen at this little price is unusual.

Two straight-line models, and one with the normal waistline, surplice bodice and tunic skirt.

Embroidered, button and braid trimmed, with close fitting sleeves and becoming necklines, these Dresses may be worn for any occasions, both formal or semi-formal.

Colors—Burgundy, brown or navy blue and black.

Sizes—34 to 44.

Sale of Jewelry

Diamond-Mounted

$16.50 to $26.50

Regularly $20.50 to $38.75

La Vallieres Bar Pins and Brooches

Just 93 pieces!

Solid gold mountings. Dainty filigree effects. Particularly inviting styles. Each piece mounted with a full-cut white diamond, and in some instances with two or three diamonds.

Many combined with real pearls and semi-precious stones.

La Vallieres have 15-inch neck chains attached, in plain and fancy links.

The mountings are green and yellow gold, with a few white gold pieces.

Street floor, Central Building.

Framed Pictures

In a Sale Presenting Extraordinary Values

In this very attractive collection are 184 Pictures—mostly Carbon Photographs—the stock of a prominent Brooklyn decorator discontinuing business—which we bought en bloc and shall sell at one-third of the decorator's retail prices—$1,000 instead of $3,250. It is a remarkable occasion. The framing is tastefully done and the subjects are well chosen. Here are some of them—excellent wedding gifts:

Reproductions of the following paintings:

"The Laughing Cavalier," by Hals.

"The Angelus," by Millet.

"Madonna," by Barabino.

"Cherry Ripe," by Reynolds.

"Hope," by Watts.

"The Studios," by Rembrandt.

"John the Baptist," by Del Sarto.

"The Dance of the Nymphs," by Corot.

Also reproductions of paintings by Van Dyck, Rubens and others.

Prices, 30c. to $16.50

Fifth floor, Central Building.

Sale of Blouses

at $3.98

Georgette and Cotton

Regularly $5.00 to $12.00

Odds and broken size styles of much higher-priced Blouses, some hand made models among them. White or flesh Georgettes, lovely Organ-dies, embroidered cotton over-blouses and French hand-made Batiste Blouses, as well as some blouses in dark suit shades.

No credits, exchanges or C. O. D.'s on these Blouses.

Second floor, East Building.

Lovely Hats

at $8.98

That Strike a New Angle

Accentuated length of line from front to back is one of the latest cries in Millinery.

A black panne velvet, that hugs the head closely at the back and swirls its brim up to the crown and then drops it to an extended front brim, has achieved the new line. The picture shows such a shape with a lavish use of burnt ostrich.

Trimmed Hats of unusual beauty and style are found among these Hats at $8.98.

A Sale of Black Lyons Velvet Untrimmed Hats at $3.98, Regularly $5.98

Hundreds of hats, made by one of the better makers—the styles that are so pretty to trim with ostrich—plain fitted hats with French edge; straight or irregular line Sailors, roll brims, mushroom, etc.

Also Ostrich Bands at $3.98

Regularly $4.98 and $6.98

Taken from regular stock and specially priced to go with the above sale of hats. A variety of styles and colors in the Ostrich bands—French blue, brown, beaver, henna, gray or black.

Mezzanine and Street floor, East Building.

In the Hotels and Restaurants

The dance will be the principal factor in entertaining visitors to New York in the big hotels this winter, and Misses Emily Illingworth and Hazel Allen, hostesses at the Waldorf-Astoria and McAlpin respectively, are now engaged in arranging several novel features for the supper dances at these hotels. Joseph Knecht, leader of the famous Waldorf-Astoria dance orchestra, and Ernest Hussar, in charge of the music feature of the McAlpin grill, are likewise bending every effort toward preparing attractive dance music features.

Dance lovers will have an entirely new type of music accompaniment in the "Wolfram" Band at the Claridge Hotel, which began on Saturday night, October 18, through the efforts of Nat W. Finston, conductor of the Rialto Theatre Orchestra, who offers the musical novelty after many months of experiment and incessant rehearsals during the past six weeks. The Wolfram, says Mr. Finston, is the invention of Josef Wolffe of his orchestra, and resembles the marimba in appearance, although its tones are more sympathetic and sustained and its beauties are especially apparent in the entrancing waltz melodies. There will be six pieces in the Wolfram Band, which was conducted in person on Saturday night by Mr. Finston, including two Wolframmas, a bass, bassoon, piano and violin. Manager William H. Turner of the Claridge, who has watched the progress of the rehearsals with great interest, believes the new music will earn an instantaneous vogue in Broadway dance circles upon its introduction at the Claridge supper dances.

"After theatre I'll meet you at Corbin's," is the new phrase of the theatregoers who wish to finish their evening enjoyment by dining in Forty-second street's newest restaurant. Corbin's Restaurant at 136 West Forty-second street is in the centre of all the show houses and next to the Hotel Knickerbocker. Although opened but a short time, it is making an unequalled reputation for serving choice poultry. Corbin's have their own farms and therefore can serve the best and freshest at moderate charge. An entire floor above the main floor can be reserved for banquets and private parties.

Pre-Catelan. Thirty-ninth street near Broadway, also presents each evening a real miniature musical comedy that vies highly with some of the musical reviews that can be found in the leading theatres about town. Under the direction of the well known William H. Barnes two presentations are given nightly, one at 8:30 and the other at 11:30. Attractive costumes, pleasing song hits, pretty girls and two wonderful orchestras are just some of the reasons why the Pre-Catelan is a popular place for those who seek real entertainment, as well as well served foods.

The Strand Roof, Broadway at Forty-seventh street, is well attended in all sorts of weather. The dance floor is the largest and finest of its kind in the city and as there is no admission charge is most popular. Dinner de luxe at $1.75 is served from 5:30 P. M. to 9 P. M. and a la carte at all hours. Twice nightly an all star cast present an elaborate revue. The chorus comprises the prettiest girls on Broadway and is well worth hearing.

The autumn season at Churchill's, Forty-ninth street and Broadway, gives promise of being the gayest that this famous institution has ever known. Mr. Churchill has spared no expense in giving his patrons just what they desire in the way of entertainment and dancing facilities.

Evelyn Downing, the well known musical comedy star from San Francisco, has been added to the excellent programme, and since her arrival has been a feature of the entertainment. The Marvellous Millers continue as the stellar attraction and in the art of whirlwind dancing are without peers. Mack Kennedy and Henry and Lizelle are among the others who combine to make Churchill's Colorful Cabaret a most successful offering.

Dancing on the most spacious restaurant floor in the city is in vogue from 1 P. M. throughout the entire afternoon. Kelly and Adler's E. Z. Riders furnish the music and entertainment features during the afternoon.

Evelyn Hubbell's twenty girl dancers gave an exhibition of the Hungarian folk dance known as the Czardas at the Pabst Hotel ballroom last Wednesday night. Next Wednesday night these same dancers will do the sailors' hornpipe in costume at Pabst Harlem.

Few restaurants can boast of a greater vogue than that now being enjoyed by the Cafe de Paris, formerly Rector's, at Broadway and Forty-eighth street. Both the main dining room and the Futurist Ballroom have settled down to what promises to be a record-breaking season. Dainty food tidbits, prepared by one of the best known French chefs in town, are served in the main dining room throughout the day, while a special table d'hote dinner at $1.50 attracts many to the Futurist Ballroom. A diverting entertainment is offered, and dancing is a popular feature of both floors.

The sailors' hornpipe, done by Evelyn Hubbell's girl dancers, twenty in number, will be the special entertainment feature of the Terrace Garden Dance Palace Tuesday evening. This will be substituted for the usual Tuesday folk dance exhibition. Marcus Nathan, managing director of Terrace Garden, Inc., has found it necessary to have the floor space of the dance palace enlarged for the third time in a year to accommodate the ever increasing patronage. Dancing sessions are held at the dance palace nightly and Saturday, Sunday and holiday afternoons.

"The Revue of Varieties," which has been holding forth at the Palais Royal for the last two months, will give way the latter part of the week to a new and more elaborate musical comedy, "The Palais Royal Revue of 1919." The new piece is the joint effort of Andre Sherri and A. Baldwin Stane, whose most recent contribution to the list of Broadway successes is "Greenwich Village Follies."

Over a Thousand Blouses

In a Great Purchase Sale

$5 :: Values from $6 to $9

BLouses designed to complete the tailored suit to a full costume, to give the effect of a dress when worn with a separate skirt, or to give a touch of elegance to the simple home toilet for the house. Many are charming enough to wear to the matinee or the restaurant. Any one of them is noticeably a good value at its price.

Some represent the overcuts of a good maker, some are discontinued lines, some are a general clean-up of stocks preparatory to beginning the work for the winter season. Some are from our own stocks, balances from former sales and discontinued styles in broken size ranges.

They are made of fine Georgette crepe in flesh, white, bisque, navy, gray, sunset, Mikado, etc., and they include round and square neck styles; some in effect of slip-on, some collarless, some with flat collars. Many are hand embroidered and a few are trimmed with good laces, fillet, etc.
